By COLIN HURST

A TOP civil servant was filmed by a security camera performing a sex act in a woman's sitting room after breaking into her home while she was out for the night.

The former high-flying government official took all his clothes off and furiously masturbated - before apparently having sex with her sofa.

There have been claims of a cover-up after a court ruled that the official CANNOT be named.

Licence freeze 'will force BBC to cut services'

THE BBC director-general has said the licence-fee freeze will result in a £285 million gap in funding for the corporation and will "no doubt" affect the broadcaster's "frontline output".

Tim Davie (above) is unhappy with the move, saying "we would have liked to have seen an inflation rise".

His comments follow Culture Secretary Nadine Dorries confirming the licence fee would be frozen at £159 for two years.

Mr Davie said: "We estimate our settlement gives a £285 million gap."

He said the BBC has made "very good progress in terms of cutting costs that don't affect the licence fee payers" as the Beeb is "focused in making sure people get value for the licence fee".

He added: "This will affect our frontline output, there's no doubt about that."

Tonga relief hit by airport ash

ASH cloaking a runway has hampered relief efforts to Tonga, as the scale of the damage from a volcanic eruption and a tsunami becomes clear.

New Zealand is trying to send clean drinking water and other supplies but planes cannot land at the main airport.

Two people have been reported dead, but with communications limited there are fears the true toll could be higher.

An underwater volcano erupted on Saturday, showering Tonga with ash and triggering a tsunami. Just over 100,000 people live in the country.

TRUMP V HILLARY: THE REMATCH

DICK Morris, a former top adviser to former President Bill Clinton, says there's a "good chance" of a 2024 rematch between Hillary Clinton and ex-President Donald Trump.

Morris said that if Democrats lose control of Congress in the 2022 mid-term elections, President Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris will be toast – paving the way for a second Hillary bid, with husband Bill shaping her strategy.

"There's a good chance of it," said Morris, referring to a Hillary-Trump rematch. "Hillary has set up a brilliant strategy that nobody else is able to do," Morris added. "Knowing the people around her, I believe there is only one person capable of that level of thinking – and that's her husband, Bill. "The second the election is over...every Democrat is going to take a shot at Biden and Harris. They will be DOA," Morris said.

TAKE TWO: Trump v Clinton is on again for 2024

Meanwhile, at a time when no Democrats are criticising Biden, Clinton has been warning her party about aligning itself with the policies of progressive Democrats.

"She has set up a zero-sum game where the worse Biden does, the better she does, because she's positioned herself as the Democratic alternative to Biden. Not just to Biden, but to the extreme left in the Democratic Party," Morris said.

"The person who staked out the turf first and owns the turf in the Democrats is going to be Hillary. It's a brilliant, brilliant strategy."

Hillary, the former secretary of state in the Obama administration, cautioned Democrats to take time for "some careful thinking" about winning elections, "not just where a Democrat and a liberal Democrat, or so-called progressive Democrat, is going to win."

Morris said, "She was right about that."

"She staked out a ground, not on ideological issues, but on pragmatism."

Government wins appeal over Dom deal

THE Government has won its Court of Appeal bid to overturn a ruling that a contract given to a company whose founders were friends of Dominic Cummings (above) was unlawful.

Last year, the High Court ruled that the Cabinet Office's decision to award a contract to market research firm Public First was unlawful as it gave rise to "apparent bias".

The organisation was given a contract for over £550,000 in June 2020 for focus groups and other research.

The Good Law Project brought a case over the links between the firm's founders and the Prime Minister's former adviser as well as then-Cabinet Office minister Michael Gove.

In the original ruling, Mrs Justice O'Farrell found that the "apparent bias" was because of a failure to consider any other research agency and record the objective criteria used in the selection.

However, in a judgment on Tuesday, the Court of Appeal overturned the previous ruling.

Cost of living rises faster than wages

AVERAGE pay rises are failing to keep up with the rise in the cost of living, the latest official statistics show.

While wages rose in the year to November, they did not jump as fast as prices in the same period.

Average weekly earnings – adjusted for price rises – fell for the first time since July 2020.

"Salaries are growing reasonably strongly, but some people are saying they are not feeling much better due to rising prices," the ONS said.

Regular pay, readjusted for inflation, fell 1% in November compared to the same month in the previous year.

In November, the inflation rate rose to 5.1% and is expected to reach at least 6% in spring, according to the Bank of England.

IF HE LIED, HE HAS TO GO

Raab admits clock is ticking for Boris

WARNING: Raab has turned up the heat on Johnson

DOMINIC Raab has said a prime minister found to have deliberately lied to Parliament would "normally" resign.

The comments come after the PM's former chief aide Dominic Cummings accused Boris Johnson of misleading MPs last week over a drinks party held in the Downing Street garden in lockdown.

But Mr Raab said his boss had "made clear" he hadn't known about the event in advance. He believes the PM will stay in power "for many years" but with most in Britain believing the PM is a lifelong fibber, Mr Raab's comments seemed to confirm Boris will be forced to quit within days.

In his blog, Mr Cummings,

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

who was still working in No10 at the time of the drinks party, on 20 May 2020, said Boris had been warned of it and told that it would break COVID rules.

He added that he had tried to persuade Mr Johnson to stop the gathering, but he had "waved it aside".

Two other former No10 officials told the BBC they remembered Mr Cummings telling them that day he had warned the prime minister not to go ahead.

The blog contradicts the account the prime minister gave to Parliament last week, in which he said he had not been notified in advance of the party, attended by around 30 people and to which around 100 were invited.

The PM also said he had been working in No10 when the drinks happened and had joined staff for 25 minutes to thank them for their efforts.

Deputy PM Raab said Mr Cummings' and Mr Johnson's accounts were "irreconcilable" but the prime minister and No 10 had "made clear" he thought the drinks to be a work event.

Quit

Asked whether any minister who lied to the House of Commons and failed to correct their remarks should resign, he replied: "Yes."

And asked later on BBC Radio 4's Today whether a PM who had been found to have lied to Parliament should quit, he said: "He would normally, if it's not corrected, if it's lying, and deliberate...if it's not corrected immediately, it would normally, under the ministerial code and the governance around Parliament, be a resigning matter."

"That is the principle. "We uphold the highest standards of principles in public life. That is critically important."

The ministerial code that governs standards of behaviour in office, states: "Ministers who knowingly mislead Parliament will be expected to offer their resignation to the prime minister."

Asked about how safe Mr Johnson was as prime minister, Mr Raab replied: "I'm confident he will carry on for many years and into the next election."

SPOOKS MISSED SIEGE GUNMAN

THE Texas siege hostage taker shot dead by the FBI was investigated by MI5 just over a year ago, but deemed to present no terrorist threat, it has emerged.

Malik Faisal Akram, 44, who held a Jewish rabbi and worshippers during an armed stand-off, had been the subject of a "short" probe by spies in 2020 after a tip off about his danger.

No further evidence beyond just "one uncorroborated piece of evidence" was found, however, and the probe was closed.

Akram, from Blackburn, was not placed on a flight warning list, which might have stopped him entering the US.

Police and spies are now examining whether any further evidence that might have allowed them to discover Akram's apparent obsession with "Lady al Qaeda" – the female Pakistani neuroscientist Aafia Siddiqui whose release he was heard demanding during the siege – might have been missed.

The disclosure came as counter-terrorism police continued to question two teenagers held in south Manchester following the siege at the Beth Israel synagogue in the Dallas suburb of Colleyville.

I DIDN'T EXPECT PIG PORN ON COUNTRYFILE

Shock over rutting porkers at teatime

AMID the storm over the BBC licence fee, the Corporation shocked viewers on Sunday teatime by screening X-rated PIG PORN!

Countryfile viewers were shocked when witnessing an 'uncomfortable' pig sex scene.

Presenter Matt Baker had travelled to Yew Tree farm in Bristol to meet a pig breeder, who was "passionate about her product".

Matt explained Catherine Withers used to use an "off-site breeder for her pigs but breeding on-farm gave her more control over the final product".

Weighing in at a healthy 300kg, wild boar Emperor was matched with pedigree pig Molly and the two soon got down to business.

Graphic

Former Blue Peter presenter Matt then asked politely: "Does he know his job?"

To which Catherine replied: "He does, he's an experienced boar."

After the rather graphic sex scene, during which Catherine quipped "it's not always gentle to make bacon", viewers took to Twitter in their droves to say the same thing about what they'd witnessed.

One wrote: "Pig porn is not what I expected when I put BBC1 on at 6pm. #Countryfile"

Another said: "Can't believe I'm watching pig porn on a Sunday evening. And the size of his nads!! #countryfile".

A third wrote: "Blue Peter was never this graphic in my day! #countryfile".

While a fourth tweeted: "#countryfile pig porn on the TV and I'm trying to enjoy my pizza with ham on it."

Once Emperor and Molly parted ways, Matt quipped: "And that, I think, is job done."

Last night, one Tory minister said: "I think it's true to say that a BBC without the licence fee would not be screening pig porn on a Sunday teatime."

KINKY CORNWALL

CORNWALL is the kinkiest part of the UK according to a new survey.

The land of cream teas landed number one spot with Wiltshire and Durham following closely behind in the rundown by card marketplace firm thortful.com.

The study reviewed sales data to reveal the areas that have the highest volume of orders for 'cheeky' Valentine's Day cards.

The data also revealed those in Leeds were the most loved up, having bought more Valentine's Day cards than any other UK city.

Diamond from outer space goes under hammer

AN out-of-this-world – literally – black diamond will go to the highest bidder at Sotheby's next month.

The record-breaking, 555.55-carat gemstone, dubbed "The Enigma," is among the largest and toughest diamonds in the world.

It's thought to have dropped millions of years ago from space.

Black diamonds are formed out of a meteoric impact to Earth, forged out of the blast or deriving from the asteroid itself.

The billion-year-old diamond is expected to fetch at least $6.8 million.

It was first listed as the largest diamond on earth by Guinness World Records in 2006.

"The shape of the diamond is based on the Middle Eastern palm symbol of the Khamsa, which stands for strength and protection," Sophie Stevens, a jewellery specialist at Sotheby's Dubai, said.

BBC COP DRAMA BABE SHOWS OFF HER ASSETS

Hidden Assets – all episodes on BBC iPlayer now

THERE is a long tradition of co-operation between the Irish Republic and Belgium.

EU officials in the Belgian capital Brussels take vast amounts of money from the German taxpayer and hurl it at Dublin, making Ireland one of the most enthusiastic members of the European Union.

Now the waffle eaters and the Guinness suppers have come together to make a detective drama, Hidden Assets, set in Limerick and the Belgian diamond city of Antwerp. It's a promising tale of drugs, gems and terrorism but, like Ireland's doomed attempt to become a financial 'Celtic Tiger', it all starts to fall apart into a bit of a mess after episode one.

By SUZIE SHELDON

Naturally, the left-wing press love it, thanks to the European co-operation angle and the fact there's a right-wing anti-immigration bogeyman bad guy.

But, alas, Hidden Assets falls a bit flat.

That said, a real gem is Irish actress Angeline Ball, who plays

Irish Criminal Assets Bureau detective Emer Berry, the lead cop in the case.

Quite how a lowly sergeant comes to lead an international diamond smuggling, fraud and terror probe is never quite explained.

Evidence

But we've done a bit of probing ourselves and have found that Angeline, who found fame in classic Irish movie The Commitments, has shown off her own Hidden Assets in the past.

So here we present our evidence...

TOP CIVIL SERVANT'S SEX WITH A SOFA

A FORMER high-level civil servant was allegedly caught on camera having sex with a SOFA in a woman's house several times while she was out.

In a pre-trial hearing prosecution lawyer Mark Shaw alleged the man had entered the woman's home at night twice, removed his clothing and furiously masturbated in her lounge.

At one point he apparently simulated sex with the woman's settee, secret filming showed. The man is facing a representative burglary charge and being in a building unlawfully.

He has entered a not guilty plea to the charge of being in a building unlawfully and has been granted interim suppression, meaning he cannot be named.

The man has previously worked as a high-ranking public servant in Wellington, New Zealand.

Shaw said that while police had charged him with being in her home unlawfully, that didn't cover the gravity of the man's alleged offending.

While he told the court the primary motivation for the man's behaviour may have been "pleasure", Shaw said the offending was against her privacy.

"You can look at the footage, he's masturbating."

Judge Chris Sygrove asked the prosecution how they could prove he intended to commit that offence, if he did not know he was being filmed.

Without the video, the judge noted that it could have occurred without anyone finding out.

Shaw said just because she wasn't there, and wouldn't have known about the incident without the camera, it did not mean his actions weren't offending against her privacy.

The accused's lawyer, Shanna Bolland, argued her client could not intend to assault or offend if he was not aware that he was being recorded.

She said in terms of the law, a person's body and physical integrity was treated differently than a person's home.

Bolland believed there was insufficient evidence that there was an intention to offend any person, whereas masturbating in front of a person would likely cause offence.

Norway mass killer Breivik in parole bid

RIGHT-wing extremist Anders Behring Breivik yesterday asked a court for parole, just 10 years after carrying out the deadliest peacetime attack in Norway.

Breivik, 42, appeared before the district court in the southern region of Telemark, convened for security reasons in the gymnasium of the Skien prison where he is incarcerated.

The families of his victims have expressed fears Breivik (above) would use the three-day hearing, which is being broadcast live, as a stage to air his political views.

In 2012 Breivik, who killed 77 people during the massacre, was jailed for 21 years.

He had to serve at least 10 years before he could make his first request for conditional release.

On July 22, 2011, Breivik killed eight people when he set off a truck bomb near the government offices in Oslo.

He then gunned down 69 others, most of them teenagers, at a summer camp for the Labour party youth wing on the island of Utoya.

Festive delays linked to rise in COVID deaths

WEEKLY registered deaths involving coronavirus in England and Wales have risen after reporting delays over the Christmas period, figures show.

Some 922 deaths registered in the week ending January 7 mentioned COVID-19 on the death certificate, according to the Office for National Statistics (ONS).

This is up 58% on the previous seven days, but the ONS said the number of registrations will have been affected by delays over the festive season.

In the latest week, around one in 13 (7.5%) registered deaths mentioned COVID-19 on the death certificate.

The number of registered care home deaths involving COVID-19 more than doubled from 64 to 130.

DRUNK AND DRUGGED:
Linda Lovelace was urged to perform depraved sex act

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

HE famously had sex several times a day, often with a group of women at the same time, fuelled mainly by Diet Pepsi and chocolate M&Ms.

But now, five years after his death aged 91, the lid has been lifted on what else went on behind the gilded gates of Hugh Hefner's Playboy Mansion. And it's even more outrageous than you could possibly imagine.

During one of his wild parties, it's sensationally claimed, he persuaded porn legend Linda Lovelace to suck off a DOG while he and his well-heeled mates looked on.

Hefner published the first edition of Playboy magazine in 1953 when he was just 27, featuring Marilyn Monroe nude. It sold 50,000 copies.

It would go on to sell a staggering SEVEN MILLION copies every month and eventually end up as the "acceptable" face of grumble fodder.

Now Hefner is the posthumous star of new documentary series Secrets of Playboy.

It claims that despite his public façade as a cuddly, fatherly figure and champion of free speech and freedom of expression, Hefner was also quite the tyrant.

The 10-part docuseries premiering on Yank network A&E on January 24 will lift the lid on the "dark underbelly" of Playboy.

Former Playboy Bunnies line up to claim the mansion

ORGIES AND DRUGS:
Hefner held wild parties at swanky mansion (right)

Smut legend Hefner watched porn star suck off a German Shepherd

DOG SEX SHAME AT PLAYBOY MANSION

became a seedy playground for drug and sexual abuse.

The series delves into the hidden truths behind Playboy with exclusive interviews with insiders, including Hefner's ex-girlfriends Holly Madison and Sondra Theodore, as well as former "Bunny Mother" PJ Masten.

Theodore, now 65, reveals how there was group sex at the mansion five nights a week, which "broke me like you'd break a horse".

Scared

She described how Hefner's sexual demands turned nasty and admits he "scared me at the end, you couldn't satisfy him. He wanted more and more and more".

Theodore also claims Hefner was a prolific drug user, sending her out to buy cocaine numerous times.

VIP members could do as they pleased, including revered Soul Train host Don Cornelius who allegedly held two Playboy bunnies hostage and raped one of them, according to the docuseries.

Holly Madison, the Playboy bunny who dated Hefner for eight years, also tells how Hefner refused to use protection during sex.

One of the most disturbing incidents happened when porn legend Linda Lovelace arrived at the Playboy Mansion for an orgy with Hefner's male friends.

Former Playboy Bunny Mother PJ Masten said: "All the guys were laughing when she got out of the limousine. She was drunk and drugged."

"All of a sudden out of nowhere, a German Shepherd shows up. They got her so messed up, they made her give the German Shepherd oral sex. You want to talk about depravity? This is despicable!"

Linda would herself later end up on the big screen, portrayed by Mama Mia! star Amanda Seyfried, in the 2013 biopic Lovelace.

By the 1970s, the magazine was so successful that Hefner opened up dozens of Playboy clubs where members gained entry using a key.

What went on afterwards was kept strictly secret.

NUDE PICS RUGBY COACH BANNED FROM TEACHING

A SCHOOL rugby coach has been banned from teaching after a fitness to practise panel found he asked girls as young as 13 for "nude pictures".

Gavin Williams, 34, who was employed as a rugby partnership officer at Aberdare Community School in South Wales for six years, messaged eight girls on Instagram and Snapchat making sexual comments about their bodies, and sent them topless photos of himself.

The support teacher asked one young girl, referred to as Learner A, for "pictures of her pretty face" and "rude ones of her boobs".

He asked another girl words to the effect of "do you send nude pictures of yourself?"

He told another pupil "I bet you're a naughty girl" and said: "I thought you would only go for boys with big willies."

A picture he sent to one girl of his face and chest while lying on a bed was accompanied by a message which read: "You should be here."

The Education Workforce Council (EWC) also found Mr Williams, a

Welsh Rugby Union hub officer, took a group of female students on a "school trip" to Aberavon beach in Port Talbot without permission.

Another time he drove one girl to the opticians in the middle of the school day, before lying to another teacher that she was his cousin.

Mr Williams was arrested by South Wales Police on November 23 2019 over allegations of sexual communications with a child and around 200,000 downloads from his various mobile phones were then reviewed, during which comments he made to Learners A, B, G, I, J, K, L and N were discovered.

Some of the girls described feeling "freaked out" by the messages.

After telling one of the girls that another teacher at the school had made sexual comments about her, Mr Williams admitted in his police interview he had lied and referred to the message as "banter", claiming he had been "winding her up".

Mr Williams was banned from teaching in Wales to "protect learners," the panel said.

MURDER PROBE:
Saw and suspect Beale (above)

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Micah Dardar reported his estranged wife Julia Dardar, 36, missing on December 23, 2021, according to police in New Orleans.

Dardar told police his ex had moved in with Benjamin Beale, a 33-year-old alleged meth and pot dealer.

Police spoke to Beale, who told them he hadn't seen Julia since December 16 and she had moved out of his home but left her belongings and car behind, according to court documents.

Headless

He said they were having relationship issues and he believed she may have been suicidal.

Police served a search warrant at Beale's home on January 11 and saw extension cords running out the back door and into a Chevrolet Diesel 60 bus parked in the yard.

Inside, they found a freezer and ice box. In the freezer, investigators discovered "the headless torso of what appeared to be an adult human female," court documents state.

She had suffered deep cuts that "appeared to have been inflicted post-mortem."

In a nearby Coleman ice chest, police said they found a reciprocating saw "which appeared to have bits of flesh and fluid on the blade".

Nearby they found goggles, a plastic face shield and garbage bags.

Police also found an alleged meth lab and illegal weapons.

The crystals found in the home later tested positive for methamphetamine.

In a bedroom safe, detectives said they found Julia Dardar's purse, wallet, identification and credit cards and at least two unlawful firearms.

Beale refused to talk further after being arrested but he has not been charged with homicide.

He is currently held at the Orleans Justice Center on charges of alleged obstruction of justice in the missing person case, distribution of meth and marijuana, possessing illegal weapons and running a "clandestine drug lab."

The identity of the remains has not yet been confirmed by authorities.

Tycoon: Lover stole my spunk!

A BUSINESSMAN accused the mother of his sons of stealing his SPUNK to get pregnant.

But a Turkish court tossed the claim out, finding instead that sperm can't be stolen.

The woman, Sevtap Sensari, 45, had filed a paternity case against the 61-year-old tycoon, referred to as HST.

The court found HST parted with his genetic material voluntarily.

He allegedly told his ex-lover he would accept paternity and marry her if she had a son.

But after she had twin boys, HST allegedly refused to acknowledge them and got violent.

The paternity suit is still pending, though the court has accepted the man is the father.

EL CHAPO GIRL DEALS IN DITTIES, NOT DRUGS

THE granddaughter of drug lord El Chapo is ready to hit the big time after winning a place as a finalist on a nationally televised reality show.

Frida Sofia Guzman Munoz was one of three finalists on Tengo Talento, Mucho Talento, the Mexican equivalent of Britain's Got Talent.

Although the 16-year-old did not win the competition, the reality show has boosted her career as a singer of regional Mexican ballads.

Frida is the daughter of Edgar Guzman Lopez, a favourite son of Joaquín "El Chapo" Guzmán.

El Chapo, who headed up the Sinaloa Cartel, is serving a life sentence for murder and drug-trafficking at a Colorado prison.

In addition to singing Mexican regional music, Frida (left) also works as a model and lives in the US.

Her Instagram page, which boasts more than 81,000 followers, features videos of the young singer in concert in glamorous outfits.

Evil mum faked death of son hidden in motel

Vanessa Blanchard, 39, was contacted by a staff member from New Providence Middle School in Clarksville, Tennessee, about why her son hadn't been in school for two days. She said her son had died after suffering a seizure. The school community rallied to raise money to help cover the boy's funeral costs. However, when the school contacted the funeral home, no funeral arrangements had been made. Officials found the boy's school-issued laptop was being used at the Vacation Motor Motel and cops found him alone there. Blanchard (above) was charged with false impression of death and contributing to the delinquency of a child.

WHILE most women her age are knocking back the HRT or planning a Wallace Arnold coach holiday, Madonna is still at the cutting edge of style.

And last week the Material Gran wowed fans by plaiting her hair in pigtails.

The coquettish look brought leers from perverts that it gives a lover "something to hang on to" while engaging in rear sex.

While others worried about the potential effect of braiding brittle elderly hair.

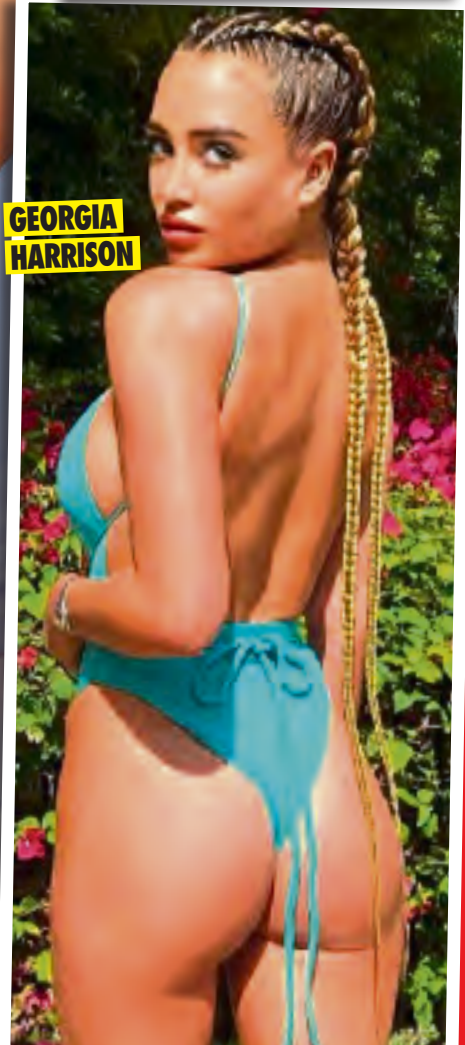

But Madge is not the only pretty lady who likes to plait her hair.

Here's five pages of babes in braids...

THE THREE-IN-A-KILLER

WHEN Karen Kahler's sex-mad husband James begged her for a threesome with another woman, she had no idea of the bloody carnage to come. When Karen began a lesbian affair with the woman he had earmarked for their threeway session, it sadly signalled the end of their marriage – and the lives of her and her children...

VICTIMS: James killed (from left) daughters Lauren and Emily, wife Karen and her granny Dorothy (inset) – but let son Sean live

THE most heart-breaking moments of James Kahler's murder trial revolved around his son.

Young Sean was just 10 when he saw his mum, two sisters and his grandmother cruelly gunned down by his own father.

Somehow, Sean had escaped unharmed before fleeing to a neighbour's house to raise the alarm.

But despite the atrocities his

news@sundaysport.co.uk

young eyes had seen, this little boy pleaded with the jury not to hand his father, a man he once idolised, a death sentence.

Sean didn't want anyone to inflict any more suffering on a family already torn apart and hurting badly.

In a statement, he said: "I do not want my dad to receive the death penalty as it would be hard on my grandparents. I do not want my whole family gone."

Kahler's trial heard that Sean's older sister Lauren, 16, had begged for her life while writhing in agony in the arms of a police officer as she took her last breaths.

In horrifying audio recordings played in court, she'd cried out: "Don't let me die... I don't want to die!"

Yet die she did, along with her sister Emily, 18, mum Karen, 44, and her granny Dorothy Wight, 89.

The women didn't succumb to their injuries quickly but died in excruciating pain while suffering the added torment of knowing it was someone so close to them who had been the one repeatedly pulling the trigger.

Execution

And now Kahler, once a respected family man, must suffer the same fate as his children and estranged wife as he awaits his own execution on Death Row.

Having married in the early 90s, Kahler and Karen appeared on the face of it to be a wealthy, charming couple who lived the ideal suburban life.

An engineering whizz, Kahler went to Kansas State University, where he'd met Karen, before earning a top job at a firm in Colorado.

While living there they had their first child, Emily. They then moved to Weatherford, Texas, where Kahler was handed the job of the town's utility director.

It was a prestigious, well-paid role that saw the Kahlers living in a lavish mansion.

It wasn't long before two more kids, Sean and Lauren, arrived.

According to friends, Karen really relished being the "perfect homemaker" and would often describe how she loved to make her husband happy.

Yet unseen trouble simmered beneath the surface.

Karen confessed to her sister Lynn that Kahler had developed a huge appetite for sex, demanding intercourse every night without fail.

Lynn admitted: "It was just something Karen did to make things run smoothly in the household."

He also handed her a bizarre curfew, as if she was a teenage girl, demanding that she be in bed at 9pm sharp each evening.

Kahler was getting ever more controlling, demanding to know how much money Karen had spent on household items, even rifling through her receipts.

Feeling more and more trapped, Karen was desperate to find an outlet away from home, so she joined the local gym.

Kahler was uneasy, but when Karen raised the membership money herself by baking and selling cakes, he agreed to indulge her.

Karen loved it, so much so that she was soon hosting her own classes.

It was then that she met fellow fitness instructor Sunny Reese and the pair developed a close friendship.

Recognising the bond between the pair, Kahler saw an opportunity to sate his sexual desires.

He sent flowers and texts to Sunny, trying to entice her into his and Karen's marital bed for a threesome.

Fantasy

But his plan backfired, only ending up with Sunny and Karen falling into each other's arms instead.

Sensing that his wife, and his ultimate sexual fantasy, were slipping through his fingers, Kahler tried to take back control of the situation.

In June 2008 he moved the family out of town to Columbia, Missouri, hoping Karen would soon forget her new infatuation. Yet Sunny and Karen continued their relationship.

Sunny even sent a text message to Kahler telling him: "She is only staying with you because it's best for the kids. She does not love you the way you think. Ask her, and you will see that I'm right by the look in her eyes."

At a New Year's Eve party back in Weatherford at the end of 2008, things finally came to a head when Karen was seen by guests kissing Sunny.

Kahler exploded with rage. Not only was his wife still cheating on him, she'd done so in public, embarrassing him in front of his friends.

Within days, Karen had filed for divorce.

By March 2009, the separation had become bitter as they fought over money, the house and their children.

After an altercation in their home, Kahler was arrested for domestic assault.

Karen fled, their three children in tow, and for the next year Kahler's life proceeded to implode.

He refused to see his two daughters, furious that they had accepted Sunny as their mother's new partner, and sought to visit only his son.

He neglected his work and eventually lost his job... and his sanity.

On November 28, 2009, Kahler barged into the home of Karen's grandmother Dorothy Wight, where his family were staying, and executed them one by one, sparing only the life of his son.

Wounds

The three Kahler women each had two wounds. Wight had one. The bullets used in Kahler's handgun were designed to fragment on impact so as to cause severe damage.

Emily Kahler was shot through her breast and back, wounds that are thought to have paralysed her instantly. She was the only victim who was already dead when paramedics arrived.

Karen, who had been standing at the sink washing up with son Sean, was shot in the leg and then in the back.

Lauren was shot in the back and buttocks, wounds that ripped apart her intestines leaving her clutching her stomach in agony.

She somehow managed to crawl from the top of the stairs to a bedroom, leaving a bloody trail behind her.

Dorothy was shot in the left arm, but a bullet fragment ended up in her abdomen.

She died four days later in hospital.

During Kahler's subsequent murder trial in August 2011, brave Sean described the scene.

Holding back tears, he said: "My dad came through the door and shot my mum."

"I heard her collapse on the floor. I just caught a glimpse. I think she was holding her leg."

"The first thing I did was duck down, then he went around the kitchen counter and that's when I ran out of the door."

"My first thought was to go in and get a phone, so I was trying to find a way to get back in."

"I started opening the door, but I saw my dad go by again so I closed it."

Hearing more gunfire, Sean ran and knocked

on the door of a nearby house.

He added: "I told them to call 911 because there had been a shooting across the street at Dorothy Wight's house."

"Once I'd calmed down I told them my dad had shot my mum, sisters and grandma."

Knife

Kahler was picked up by police just a few hundred yards from the crime scene, walking along the side of the road with a hunting knife in one hand and a gun in the other.

He was repeating: "I'm the man you're looking for. I messed up. I messed up..."

Despite entering a plea of insanity, Kahler was found guilty of four counts of first-degree murder.

In October 2011 he was subsequently sentenced to be executed.

Unrepentant to the last, as he'd exited the courtroom Kahler told his parents: "Take care of Sean so he's not raised by a bunch of freaks," referring to the relatives of his wife who were caring for the boy.

Poor Sean was placed in the care of the state, still trying to comprehend what happened to his once-perfect life as he prepared to become an orphan.

Sunny Reese was also left on her own.

She later said: "I only wanted to protect Karen. I thought I could..."

MURDER BY SCREENWASH

FIGHTS OVER DRINKING:
Holifield

Boozer poisoned his pal with wiper fluid

A MAN poisoned his roommate to death by spiking her drinks with windshield washer after she disapproved of his heavy drinking.

Thomas Holifield, 59, has been charged with the murder of 64-year-old Pamela Keltz, who died from methanol poisoning, according to Michigan City police in Indiana and LaPorte County Coroner Lynn Swanson.

Holifield allegedly called cops to confess, while Keltz was being treated in the intensive care unit at a local hospital.

Holifield told officers Keltz was his "best friend" and they had previously had a romantic relationship.

He said the two fought over his boozing because she did not drink alcohol, saying his drinking became "a point of contention".

Diarrhoea

He allegedly devised a plan to kill her, first by putting eye drops into a cup she regularly drank fizzy pop from.

However, he "noted that the eye drops were not causing severe enough illness. Pamela would have diarrhoea and hallucinations but then recover," court documents state.

Holifield then found a bottle of windshield washer fluid in Keltz's bedroom and saw it contained the poisonous chemical methanol.

He allegedly told cops

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

he put some fluid in Keltz's two-litre pop bottles, which caused her to get sick and go to hospital.

After returning home, he said he put more and more of the poison into her soda in an attempt to kill her, the court documents say.

After learning Keltz was poisoned, doctors changed her treatment, but were ultimately unable to save her.

She was declared brain-dead and removed from life support.

A search warrant executed on Holifield's home revealed a funnel and a nearly empty gallon size bottle of Champion washer fluid, which Holifield allegedly told police was nearly full when he first began poisoning Keltz.

Holifield has pleaded not guilty to murder.

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Forget filleting the BBC... sort the fking trains, Boris!

TALKING BOLLOCKS: PM has gone back on his promises

ACCORDING to Google Maps, travelling either by road, rail or my own feet, the distance to the hospital was 22 miles.

In a straight-line dash down the motorway with no interruptions, you're looking at a 20-minute journey, or even less, from door to door.

So why did it take us two hours and 20 minutes to get there?

And three hours to get back?

Easy. Boris Johnson.

He made lots of promises to get the keys to Number 10, helped along by a tremendously shit opponent that had scared the hell out of most normal people.

Yet he still hasn't "got Brexit done" properly, and that "levelling up" agenda seems to be right up there with Sir John Major's "back to basics" and David Cameron's "Big Society".

Hot air. Or, as we call it up north, bollocks.

Part of that levelling up agenda was to finally sort out the appalling rail services across the north of England, for decades starved of real investment and instead tossed measly patch-up repairs.

Untouched

Not for us a glittering array of wifi-friendly tube trains and lines to choose from.

Nor a sparkly new east-to-west Crossrail system.

Nor, as it's coming soon, a north-to-south Crossrail system, too.

While the ground beneath London increasingly resembles a chunk of Gorgonzola, the grounds up north remain as solid – and untouched – as ever.

No sooner had he got into office, the Prime Minister started to backpedal on the northern bit of the HS2 line, because obviously the south urgently needs more railway services than we do.

And the result is Monday, when it took me and the missus almost a working day in travel just for a round trip of 44 miles.

It didn't help that the community hospital we were attending was in the middle of nowhere, tucked onto the edge of Shotton itself, and, the way our cabbie took us, accessible only by a single lane country road.

After our three trains to get near it, we discovered there is no actual bus route to the hospital, either.

So, a cab it was.

Then, after a 90-minute appointment with some brilliant NHS specialists, we again took a taxi to the station and waited.

Madness

And waited.

We'd arrived back at the station just before 2pm, thinking we had twenty minutes to wait, but it turned out to be an hour-and-a-half.

Yes, they're not even on the hour, never mind the half-hour.

As Shotton is within spitting distance of Chester, Manchester and Liverpool, this is madness.

Worse still, the train we waited for would eventually land at Birmingham International.

God help you if you were on that journey.

Before Boris starts gun-boating the Channel migrants, or shuts down the BBC, or chucks yet more billions for the NHS to swallow with a hearty follow up belch, he needs to start on the trains.

Not last week. Not in ten years' time. Not as part of a grand plan full of fancy words but no action.

Just get the fking railways sorted, like every single politician in my lifetime has promised.

How hard can it be?

ZUZANA DRABINOVA

FROM EDGWARE,
N LONDON

I'VE been fantasising lately about having food sex. I did it with an ex once and remembered how fun it was!

What was great about my experience was it just kind of happened spontaneously.

Me and my then fella were in the kitchen eating cheese fondue and we were being all cute and feeding it to each other.

The cheese clumsily dripped off my lower lip and he took me by surprise by licking it. I instantly felt turned on.

Then I was licking and sucking it off his lips.

The clothes came off and for a giggle we moved on to whipped cream, right there on the kitchen table.

I sprayed some on the side of his neck and then licked it off.

I repeated this on his chest, his navel and finally, on his cock which was very hard by then.

He did the same to me – licking it off my neck, boobs, belly button and eventually after a nice, long tease, my clit. The anticipation drove me wild.

It felt a bit feral and totally messy...which is what some of the best sex is all about!

'I adore my fella licking cream off my naughty bits!'

Twitter suspends Iran account over Trump death vid

TWITTER permanently suspended an account linked to Iran's supreme leader after it promoted a video depicting the assassination of former US President Donald Trump.

The account, @KhameneiSite, linked to Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, posted an animated video of a drone targeting Trump as he is golfing near Mar-a-Lago, his resort in Florida.

The clip called for revenge for the death of Iranian general Qassem Soleimani, the commander of the elite Quds Force who was killed in a drone strike ordered by Trump near Baghdad airport on January 3, 2020.

In the video, titled "Revenge is Definite", a robot spots Trump playing golf and calls in a drone strike.

Moments before the drone hits Trump, he gets a text message that says: "Soleimani's murderer and the one who gave the order will pay the price."

Ayatollah Khamenei has repeatedly vowed to assassinate Trump over the killing of Iran's top general.

'Nightmare' of COVID ship stuck at sea

TRAVELLERS on a Norwegian Cruise Line ship in the Caribbean are stuck at sea after the company called off the trip mid-voyage due to COVID-19 issues.

Aimee Focaraccio said she boarded the Norwegian Gem from New York for a 10-day birthday cruise but the trip became a "nightmare" when the cruise line cancelled the voyage four days later and provided no timeline for the ship to return.

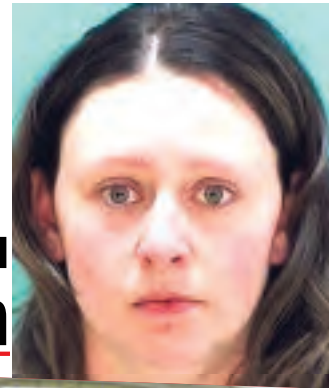

"Without the islands and ports to break up the sea days, this is turning into a nightmare. I really can't imagine four more sea days back to back without much to do," Focaraccio said.

"With limited shows, small crowds and nothing to do, I'm upset," she added.

MISS SHAGGED PUPIL AT LICKING HEIGHTS SCHOOL

Teacher faces three years in prison

NICKED: Webb (right) and student bonked in car parks

Thighs the limit for kinky boots Amanda

AMANDA Holden has wowed fans with her incredible pose as she stripped to a very skimpy outfit.

The Heart FM radio DJ and ITV Britain's Got Talent judge danced in front of her garage for the clip.

Amanda, who also starred in ITV Walk the Line last month, flaunted her assets in a bodysuit and thigh high boots.

Amanda, 50, captioned the image with: "My version of #garage music."

A happy fan said: "I want to lick her bumhole."

A TEACHERS' assistant at a school called Licking Heights was accused of having a sexual relationship with a student.

Mackenzie Webb, 26, was nicked by cops and charged with one count of tampering with evidence.

Court records show Webb was initially charged with one count of sexual battery and the complaint was amended to a tampering with evidence charge.

According to a criminal complaint filed in Pataskala, Ohio, Licking Heights Middle School reported a concern about a possible sexual relationship between a student and a teacher's aide, who was identified as Webb.

Romantic

A Pataskala police detective interviewed Webb at the school.

She admitted having sexual intercourse with her student multiple times, allegedly in the car park of Licking Heights Middle School and the parking lot of a Pataskala church.

"The defendant provided her cell phone to (the detective) and admitted she erased messages on Instagram and messages on her cell phone between her and her student documenting the relationship between them," the complaint said.

"(The detective) inspected the phone and found text messages between them that were romantic in nature."

The detective said he interviewed the student, who allegedly admitted to the same incidents and confirmed the locations of each.

A grand jury will review the case for possible indictment and additional charges.

If convicted, Webb faces up to three years in prison and up to an £8,000 fine.

Licking Heights Local Schools Superintendent Philip Wagner said Webb's employment is being terminated.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY

Page

Dear Kelly,

I'm really into my cycling and ride around 10 miles into work and back every day.

As well as helping me lose about three stone, all that pumping on the saddle seems to have made my member grow quite substantially.

I couldn't resist "accidentally" walking into the office in my Lycra cycling shorts, just to see how the ladies would react to my bulge.

Most of them pretended to ignore me, but a couple of them – saucy mares – made comments about "packed lunch" and stuff like that.

In fact, one of them went so far as to give me a bit of a "tweak" by the photocopy, which led to us finding ourselves in the ladies loo.

She grabbed me with both hands, used her lips on me and then guided me in as we had a "quickie".

Trouble is, the other cheeky one got the hump that she didn't get to grips with my sizeable organ and grassed us up. Now I face the sack.

What shall I do?

MK, Norfolk

Kelly says...

GET on yer bike and look for a new job.

Dear Kelly,

I'm a 24-year-old joiner and I nearly took the tip of my finger off in a taxi door the other night while I was pissed.

It was gushing with blood, so I went straight off to hospital and had to pretend I wasn't in absolute agony when I was seen by a gorgeous female nurse.

But as she put ointment on my wound it really hurt and I winced. To my surprise she said she'd make the pain go away – and started to lick my fingers!

Obviously, I got a hard-on, which I realised she'd noticed when she discreetly pulled the curtains shut around us and began to rub the front of my jeans.

I soon forgot about my injury as she pulled out my rock-hard cock and knelt in front of me. She gave me an expert blowjob and even swallowed the lot.

Should I injure another digit, so I can go and see her again?

FK, Preston

Kelly says...

I RECKON she'd give you the finger if you did!

Swap sex backfired as my girl swapped me for a pal

Dear Kelly,

My girlfriend walked out on me a few weeks ago and it left me devastated – we'd been together for five years.

She told me that she'd been seeing somebody else and, if that wasn't bad enough, she said the other guy is my mate.

It started when I introduced her to swapping partners. Our sex life was good, but I need a bit of variety and I was bored with just shagging her four or five times a week.

I found a contact site on the net and replied to one of the ads.

Once I'd sorted out a nice couple to have some adult fun with, I told my girlfriend.

At first she went berserk and called me all kinds of names. But I persisted and she agreed to give it a go.

The pair we met up with were a good-looking blonde and a tall, dark-haired man.

As the night wore on, my girl got into the mood by stroking the guy's knob while his bird sucked on mine.

The women then had lesbian sex as we watched and wanked.

Then my bird rolled over and grabbed hold of the fella and pulled him on top.

He gave her a good seeing to as I screwed his wife.

But when my girlfriend left me, she said it was my fault as she'd never have thought about shagging someone else but for our swapping session.

What should I do?

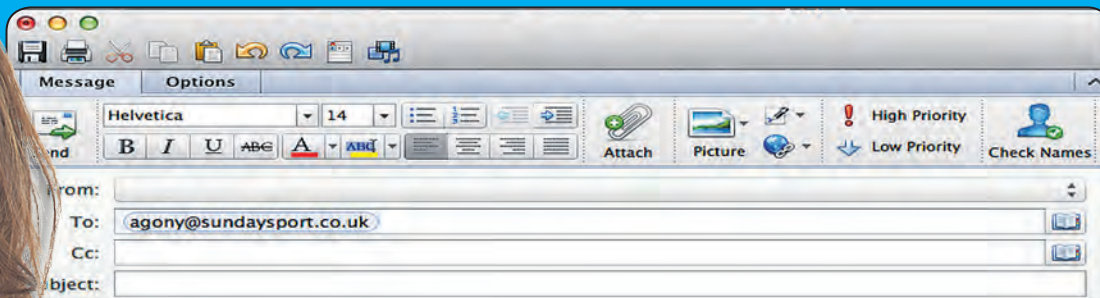

PW, Northumberland

Kelly says...

FIND another girlfriend and don't swap again in future... you IDIOT!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week KELLY MCGREGOR has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Selfish mates use me as sex object

Dear Kelly,

I'M a 21-year-old single girl and I'm lucky enough to have a wide circle of friends.

Even though most of them are fellas, we go out clubbing every weekend and have a great time.

There are 10 of us – three girls and seven lads – and I have to admit we often get pretty blitzed and end up doing some wild things together.

But just lately, I feel that some of my male mates are simply using me for sex.

Pounding

The thing is, I've shagged all of them over the years but never got romantically involved with any of them.

However, over the last couple of months they've stopped asking me out with them at weekends.

Instead, they've been calling at my house in midweek and we end up having sex.

One night a pal turned up and asked point-blank for a fk.

Rather than disappoint him, I obligingly dropped my knickers and bent over the sofa.

He wasted no time ramming his seven-incher into me from behind and began pounding away.

It was pretty good and I orgasmed twice before he climaxed. But once he'd finished, he left.

The next night another of the fellas called and we ended up having oral with each other.

But again, he shot off to the pub as soon as he'd come.

The following week I was feeling really fed up because I hadn't been out when two of the guys called and we all ended up naked on my bed.

I sucked one of them off while his chum gave me a good licking and then they swapped places.

The pair of them then proceeded to shag me like there was no tomorrow.

It went on for ages, each of them taking turns to fill my pussy.

I had orgasm after orgasm until I had to beg them to stop because I couldn't take it any more.

Even then they weren't finished. They wanked themselves furiously over the top of me before squirting their spunk all over my face.

I thought I was at least going to get some reward for my efforts when one bloke suggested going to the pub for a drink.

But when I said I would love to, they said it was a "lads' night" and left.

I feel really pissed off about the way they are treating me.

What shall I do?

BD, Somerset

Kelly says...

YOU'RE spot on when you say they are using you. Next time they call, tell them to fk off!

My cheating shame with busty blonde

Dear Kelly,

I WAS invited to a 25th wedding anniversary party. My missus was away visiting a relative, so I went alone to a hotel where I'd booked in for the night.

At the anniversary dinner, I was seated next to a blonde who was about 45 with a great figure – shown off to great effect by her low-cut party dress.

I spent most of the night gazing down her cleavage and, when she noticed, I felt her hand slip on to my thigh and start rubbing.

She could tell I was "up" for it, and for the first time in 24 years of marriage I cheated on my wife.

In my room she performed an erotic strip to reveal a tanned and well-toned body.

Lapped

She lay back on the bed and spread her legs, revealing a moist pussy.

Without a thought for my wife, I went down on her luscious fanny and lapped at it until she was panting for a poke.

I couldn't restrain myself as I shafted her long and hard.

But in the cold light of day I was shocked at the way I behaved and I'm now terrified that word might get back to my missus.

What can I do?

NC, Dorset

Kelly says...

IF it was a one-off, just concentrate on reaching your own 25th anniversary

Dear Kelly,

I'M a bubbly, 18-year-old blonde and three months ago I started a job with an insurance company.

I thought I'd hit the jackpot when my head of department – a handsome bloke in his early 30s – asked me out for a drink.

We got on really well and I could tell he was bursting to shag me, but he said he was married and couldn't take me home to his place.

I was so horny that I suggested we went to the office.

We'd worked ourselves up into a sexual frenzy and when he got me in his office he didn't mess around.

He bent me over the desk, slid down my knickers from behind and roughly inserted his todger.

I felt like I was being treated like a whore, but I wasn't going to complain as I was thinking of my promotion prospects.

How wrong I was to build up my hopes!

The next day he passed me in the corridor without a second glance and he hasn't spoken to me since.

What should I do?

HK, Weymouth

Kelly says...

WORK hard instead.

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDs FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Down on Abby this is your lucky day. Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down on Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

STEPH MARTIN

LOCKSMITH Timothy Spellar reckons the bigger the better when it comes to boobs – which is why Steph Martin is his favourite. Timothy, 47, from Newcastle, emailed the Sport asking for a pic of mega-boobed Steph, from Maidenhead.

He said: "I do love boobs. I don't know any man who'd turn down a woman with a good pair of boobs, the bigger the better for me."

"Danni is a stunning girl but I'm not going to lie, it's definitely her 34D norks which catch my eye. I could stare at them for days."

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

SHARON LEE

BUILDER Tony Lochlan emailed in wanting a photo of sexy Sharon Lee to show his work pals just how much of a babe she really is.

Tony, 34, from Carlisle, said none of his mates understand his obsession with Sharon, from Wembley, north London.

And he wants to show them what they're missing by taking a photo of her onto site.

He said: "They'll not stop ribbing me about fancying her until I show them a good photo."

"The sexiest photo you've got please – with her 32D boobs looking sensational."

Here you go, Tony!

KAREN WHITE

WANNABE author Fred Grant spends his days penning short stories but took time out to email in asking for a sexy snap of Karen White.

Fred, 65, from Richmond, London, loves Karen's wavy blonde hair but appreciates her womanly curves much more.

He takes regular breaks to read the Sport and thinks of Karen, from Brighton, when he needs inspiration for a saucy tale.

Fredrick said: "Could I please have a photo of Karen with her 34Ds on show, she's been a real gem over the years."

"It's really sexy when he whispers things in my ear and bosses me around."

TARGET: Zapata

Toon hunt Colombia ace Zapata in £25m deal

NEWCASTLE will try to bring in at least one more signing before the transfer window closes.

There are less than two weeks until new signings are banned and Eddie Howe has signed just two in Kieran Trippier and Chris Wood.

Atalanta striker Duvan Zapata is top of their shopping list.

The Colombian, 30, has scored 12 times this season and 76 in total for the Serie A side.

Another Atalanta player, Germany star Robin Gosens, is another player the Toon want.

But their chairman Umberto Marino wants to keep his top players at the club.

He said: "Every day we read in the newspapers of Atalanta players in talks with Newcastle."

"It seems like a lottery."

"We're waiting for Gosens to come back from injury."

Zapata is thought to be keen on the move and Newcastle are considering a £25m but the Italians want £10m more than that.

The Toon don't want to cough up that much for a player who is the wrong side of 30.

Newcastle are also in the running for 20-year-old Benfica hitman Darwin Nunez.

The Portuguese side want a hefty £50m but the move could happen if they drop their demands to nearer the £20m they paid for him just a year ago.

Bruno wants £100,000 rise

BRUNO Fernandes wants a big pay rise to sign a new deal at Manchester United.

The Portugal midfielder is on £100,000 a week but that doesn't put him anywhere near the top earners at the club.

Cristiano Ronaldo leads the way at £400,000 but the likes of Marcus Rashford, Paul Pogba and Edinson Cavani are thought to be on double what Fernandes gets.

There's no rush as the 27-year-old is committed to the club until 2025.

But United would like to tie him down beyond that. Their first offer has reportedly been snubbed.

WILL ENGLAND EVER WIN A TEST

A LOAD OF RED BALLS!

Five-day game needs help says Root

JOE ROOT says he's on a mission to make England's Test side great again.

The red-ball skipper admits the Ashes were a skip fire. England managed to avoid a 5-0 whitewash – but only because it rained in Sydney so they could scrape a defensive draw.

The Ashes finished a real low as the last nine wickets of the series were lost for a pathetic 56 runs.

You could take any county side over and they wouldn't have done any worse with the bat.

Of players who appeared in more than two Tests, Root topped the averages for England with a feeble 32.20 – well below his best.

But the other batters were miles off where you need to be for international cricket.

Zac Crawley averaged 27, Dawid Malan just 24, Ben Stokes 23, Rory

Burns 12 and Haseeb Hammed just 10!

There have been many theories put forward as to why England can't bat in Test cricket.

The main one being the nation has focused on white ball one-day cricket has ruined the longer format.

That has paid dividends with England running out brilliant winners of the World Cup for the first time.

A more pressing problem might be the way the county championship has largely been squeezed into April and May when pitches are ideal for the bowlers.

Root admits the Test side is at "rock-bottom" but wants the chance to turn things around.

He's likely to stay as skipper but mainly because there is nobody obvious waiting in the wings to take over.

Root said: "I'd love the opportunity to take this team forward and to turn things around."

"At the minute, we are going through a real tough stage as a group of players, and the performances haven't been good enough."

Appetite

"But I'd love the opportunity to try and turn things around and for us to start finding the performances that you'd expect from an English Test team, which we've been lacking of late."

"I believe I am the right man to take this team forward, in my own eyes."

"If that decision is taken out of my hands, then so be it, but I'd love the opportunity to carry that forward."

"And yes, I do have an appetite to carry on and to turn things around, but we'll see how things unfold in the coming weeks."

Root believes there are many things that need to change to get England winning again, especially overseas.

He added: "There's a lot of things to consider. Playing in these bubbles takes its toll and there are certain things that definitely need to change."

"We've got an opportunity to really prioritise Test cricket off the back of this, and I'm sure I'll get an opportunity to express my views, and how I think we can make significant changes to the red-ball game in our country."

Root is trying to put a brave face on it and has been hinting that the players who struggled Down Under may get another chance.

He said: "The quality's there, the potential is, certainly."

"There's a lot of talent, we've just not turned it into performances,

MATCH AGAIN AFTER ASHES?

BIG TEST AHEAD:
Root needs to sort out the five-day team which is the bottom line in Test cricket.

"At this level, you've got to bang out performances, and we've not managed to do that at all on this on this trip as a batting group.

"Far too many times we've been bowled out for under 200, and we are never going to win Test matches when we don't get runs on the board.

Account

"I felt for our bowlers after the performance they put in in that second innings. We really missed an opportunity in the final Test.

"A lot of guys will look at themselves in the mirror and say 'I've not given a very good account of myself,' he added. "That's a frustration. We have let ourselves down because we've not given a fair account of what we're capable of.

"But at the same time, it's quite evident that Australia, at this moment in time, are a better team than us in all areas.

"It hurts me to say that, but it's the reality of things. We've got to accept that and find a way of being better."

A trip to the West Indies is next for England with the T20 games kicking off on Saturday. A different team, led by Eoin Morgan, will play those.

But Tests follow in the Caribbean and it will be telling to see how many changes are made to the squad after the Ashes.

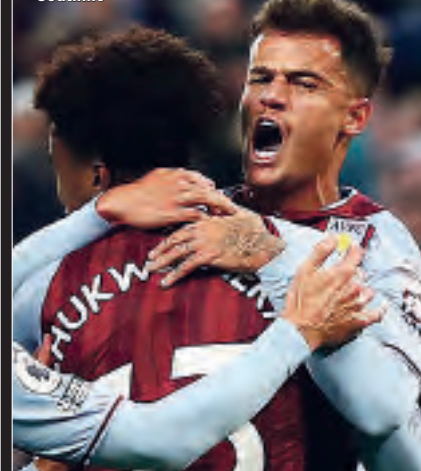

Root hopes the Windies tour will be more of a success than his Australian trip.

He added: "Thankfully we've got four or five weeks at home, before the opportunity to go to the West Indies and start to make significant improvement as a group of players."

GOOD START:
Coutinho

Phil and Emi a Cout above for Gerrard

PHILIPPE Coutinho can lift Aston Villa to the next level says boss Steven Gerrard.

And he's already excited by the way his new signing combined with Emi Buendia in their 2-2 comeback draw against Manchester United.

The Villans trailed 2-0 when the Brazilian came off the bench to make a major impact on the match.

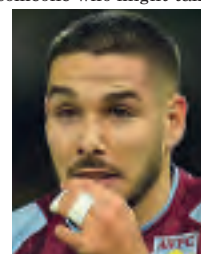

He helped to create the first goal and knocked in the equaliser himself on a fantastic debut.

Gerrard thinks Coutinho's arrival is great news for Buendia rather than someone who might take his place in the side.

But the gaffer reckons they will unpick plenty of defences together.

He said: "I think people on the outside might have been wondering when Phil arrived what it meant for other players in the team and the squad.

"But we want as many good players here as we can, we want players who can play together.

PARTNER: Emi Buendia

Headlines

"Buendia and Coutinho have been shining in training together and they obviously get on well with the South American connection.

"We haven't brought anyone in to replace Buendia, he's a big player for us and he's going to contribute and help us a lot moving forward."

While Coutinho got the headlines, Gerrard was haaf Buendia.

He added: "He was my personal man of the match. OK, there were a few things within the performance that I'm sure Emi will try and improve, that's the sort of kid and character we're talking about.

"He epitomised what I wanted from the performance.

"He was competing for headers, he was sliding and won everything he could out of possession.

"He died on the pitch, he was getting kicked and some of his football was terrific.

"Just that real energy and passion and fight, committing to a game-plan, I was absolutely delighted with Emi and he's been getting better and better each week.

"We've sat him down and spoken with him about certain situations but I really loved his performance.

"He epitomised everything that I want to stand for."

Gerrard was delighted with the way his side bounced back against United.

He said: "If we want to take this team and go on this positive journey we need to show it over 90 minutes so that is the big lesson."

HIGH HOPES: Gerrard

Everton turn to Rooney after Martinez snub

WAYNE Rooney looks

The current Derby boss has jumped to the top of the shortlist to take over from Rafael Benitez.

Toffee owner Farhad Moshiri is thought to want former gaffer Roberto Martinez back despite already sacking him once.

But he's the manager of Belgium and they have reportedly told Everton to get stuffed about releasing him from his contract.

And Martinez himself has gone public in saying he will steer the Belgians through the World Cup in Qatar this winter that they are fancied to win by many pundits.

The Goodison fanbase are desperate for Rooney to get the job – with Duncan Ferguson as his No2.

Wazza is an Everton legend who would get a huge welcome from the fans who were against Rafa Benitez from day one thanks to his links with Liverpool.

Rooney has done a good job in charge of Derby despite the financial issues at the club. He has steered them off the bottom of the Championship.

Wazza has refused to talk about the job but insiders say he would struggle to turn down a Goodison return.
